ALAN MELTZER ELECTED TO WRESTLE LIKE A GIRL'S BOARD OF TRUSTEES

(WASHINGTON, DC) – Wrestle Like A Girl (WLAG) announced today that Mr. Alan Meltzer was elected to the Board of Trustees. Mr. Meltzer is the Founder of The Meltzer Group, a highly successful insurance agency that was sold to NFP, and now serves as CEO of NFP/The Meltzer Group. Mr. Meltzer's strong core values and work ethic were the driving forces behind the company's exponential growth and continue to be cornerstones of the company's ethos. Throughout his career, Mr. Meltzer has been recognized for his outstanding success and business acumen earning MassMutual's Agent of the Year, a record 18 times, and being inducted into the Washington Business Hall of Fame in 2011.

WLAG Chairwoman, Ms. Maryann Bruce said, "We're delighted Alan is joining the Board. Alan is a former three-time captain of American University's wrestling team and is actively engaged with the local wrestling community. Alan's experience as one of the top corporate philanthropists in the greater Washington, D.C. metropolitan area, his passion for delivering first-class client service, and his extensive board service will help amplify WLAG's vision of ensuring equal access and opportunities for girls and women in wrestling, worldwide."

Mr. Meltzer earned a Bachelor of Arts in International Studies from American University. He and his wife have four children and six grandchildren and reside in Boca Raton, Florida, and Washington, DC.

WLAG's CEO Sally Roberts said, "Alan is well-known in the wrestling community having received the National Wrestling Coaches Association's Meritorious Service Award, honoring an individual who has made outstanding contributions in supporting and promoting the sport of amateur wrestling. His expertise in business, his dedication to helping others, and his commitment to gender equality will make Alan a powerful addition to the Board of Trustees and its ongoing efforts to grow women's wrestling."
