WRESTLE LIKE A GIRL ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT OF DAN HYMAN TO THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

(WASHINGTON, DC) – Wrestle Like A Girl (WLAG) is pleased to announce that Dan Hyman was elected to the Board of Trustees, effective immediately.

Dan has nearly twenty years of investment experience and now serves as Managing Director and portfolio manager at PIMCO, one of the world's premier fixed income investment managers. Dan wrestled for Arizona State University and Lehigh University, where he became the 2002 Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association Champion.

Dan's charitable endeavors are focused on children, sports, and education which are directly aligned with WLAG's vision and mission. Dan has extensive nonprofit board experience. He currently serves on the National Wrestling Hall of Fame Board of Governors and the Board of Beat the Streets Los Angeles. In addition to serving on the PIMCO Foundation Board, Dan previously served as the Vice-Chair for the Childrens Hospital of Orange County.

"We are delighted to welcome Dan to the WLAG board," said WLAG Board Chairwoman Ms. Maryann Bruce. "He has an impressive business leadership background, numerous wrestling athletic accomplishments, nonprofit board experience, and fundraising expertise that will be extremely valuable to WLAG and our Board."

Mr. Dan Hyman graduated with a Bachelor of Science focused in Economics from Lehigh University.

WLAG's CEO Sally Roberts said, "I've had the pleasure of serving on the board of Beat the Streets Los Angeles with Dan and have seen firsthand his dedication and passion for empowering and transforming the lives of underrepresented youth through wrestling. I know Dan will apply that same level of commitment to help grow girl's wrestling worldwide."
